

Frank Hennig, Wheeling's favorite son, is in the city, having come in from Columbus yesterday to spend Sunday with his parents and Wheeling friends. Mr. Keene, whose leading man he is, closed an engagement at Columbus Saturday night and will be at Pittsburgh all this week. The company passed through yesterday evening. Mr. Hennig will go up to Pittsburgh this morning.

Frank looks better than ever, and, as his friends have been kept advised by the INTELLIGENCER, he has made a big reputation all over the country, as far as British Columbia. He says Mr. Keene's health is as good as could be desired, and he has never acted better than this season. Everywhere he has done a phenomenally large business, and in many places has turned people away.

Keene closes his season in March. A week or so later Mr. Hennig will take out a company of actors selected from his company and make a short tour doing "Hamlet," "Othello" and "Richard III." He will appear here for the benefit of the Wheeling lodge of Elks in the two latter plays. This is, of course, a preliminary step to starrising some time, and friends of Mr. Hennig may expect some day to be proud that they appreciated his talent before he became a famous star.

"The County Fair."

Lovers of the country and country life will be given an opportunity for enjoyment in the production of "The County Fair" at the Opera House this evening. "The County Fair" is a great success throughout the land is familiar to play-goers. It is essentially a story of the country and country folk, and the scent of clover and the sheen of yellow corn permeates it. It is full of laughable episodes, and presents characters whose prototypes may be seen at any time in farm lands of New England. Abigail Prue, a spinster, adopts two waifs, who aid her in relieving the mortgage from her farm by means of a speedy colt, Cold Molasses, who wins a race and secures a snug purse. This episode naturally introduces a great effect, a real horse race, which is accomplished by means of Neil Burgess's patented moving platforms.

"The Witch."

Mario Hubert Frohman will appear at the Opera House Wednesday evening in "The Witch." This play, from all accounts, is one of astonishing power and originality. It is a picture of the days of witchcraft in Massachusetts. The scenes on the old Salem street, the costumes and manners of the people are all embodied in the play. The story is said to be profoundly interesting and to hold the audience as if under a spell. Its scenes follow each other naturally, and act by act the play deepens in color and strength. Mario Hubert Frohman, who appears in the title role, has an interesting personality and, though young in years, her powers emotional and dramatic are said to be exceptional. The press of New York and Philadelphia speak of the production in the highest terms.

Matthe Vickers To-night.

At the Grand this evening Matthe Vickers will appear in her new play, "Eldeweiss." To-morrow afternoon Miss Vickers will give a special matinee for ladies and children, when "Eldeweiss" will be repeated. In the evening the new play, called the "Circus Queen" will be presented. Miss Vickers will open to a large audience, as the seats are going off very fast at Gonthers.

"777."

This is the title of a new drama which will be produced at the Grand the last three nights of this week. The Chicago Post says: A. W. Freemont made his appearance in the drama, "777" at Havlin's theatre yesterday. Both the matinee and the evening performance were well attended. The scene is laid in a Louisiana prison, "777" being the number of one of the prisoners. The dialect stories and skits compose a good proportion of the entire play, and in many cases the work is highly commendable. One of the finest scenes is a graphic representation of this New Orleans gambling dens.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Death of Mr. Beaumont—Check Stealing. Personal and General.

Mr. John Beaumont, a well-known citizen of Martin's Ferry and member of St. Paul's Episcopal church, died at the family residence on Third street on Saturday morning, after a lingering illness. He was born in England and was eighty years old. He came to Wheeling in 1884, and was tempted to return after the memorable flood that year, but after matters assumed their normal state decided to remain, and had lived in Martin's Ferry for several years. A wife and three children survive him. The children are Mrs. Harry Northwood, Mr. George Beaumont and Mr. Percy Beaumont, all of Martin's Ferry. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. Rev. Charles O'Meara, of the Episcopal church, officiated.

A slight fire above the ceiling in the boiler shop of Strauthers & Company, in the Commercial Block on Hanover street created some excitement on Saturday night. Mr. George H. Smith, cashier of the Commercial Bank which occupies a portion of the second floor over the barber shop, opened the front door about 7 o'clock to make a deposit and found the room filled with smoke. No flames could be found. A portion of the floor was taken up and it was discovered that the joist underneath was on fire. This was caused by a large lamp in the barber shop which hung near the ceiling.

They Never Fail.

J. N. Harris, 3 Fulton Market, New York City, says:

"I have been using BRANDETH'S PILLS for the last fifteen years. There is nothing equal to them as blood purifiers and liver regulators. But I wish to state how remarkably they cure rheumatism, and how easily; I was affected by rheumatism in the legs. My business (wholesale fish dealer) naturally leads me to damp places. I could not walk, and at night I suffered fearfully; I tried balsams, sarsaparillas and all kinds of tinctures, but they did me no good and I was afraid of being a cripple. I finally commenced using BRANDETH'S PILLS. I took two every night for ten nights, then I began to improve. I continued taking them for forty days and I got entirely well. Now, whenever sick, I take BRANDETH'S PILLS. They never fail."

RHEUMATISM is caused by a poisonous acid in the blood and yields to Dr. A. S. Todd's Liver Pills. Many cases which seem chronic and hopeless have been completely cured by this medicine. It will cost but little to try what effect the pills may have in your case. We predict success.

PEEL DEAD.

A Sad Warning—Take Heed.

Peel dead! He was a business man among you yesterday, but he neglected the various weaknesses which finally resulted in Heart Failure.

You are warned, as he was, by nervousness, malaria, weary, dizzy and strange, faint feelings, loss of memory, confused mind, trembling, shivering sensation, coldness of feet and legs, palpitation, feeling of apprehension, anxiety, drowsiness daytime, sleeplessness nights.

If you have these symptoms, you must at once use the sure, potent, of Heart Failure—the greatest of all nerve strengtheners, Dr. Greene's Nervura. It is the only certain remedy for heart and nerve troubles, but should be used when the very first symptoms of nervousness and weakness appear, and thus prevent the fatal result. Purely vegetable and harmless. Sold by druggists, $1.

"I suffered from vertigo and heart disease, with frequent attacks of faintness and failure of heart action, sometimes so bad that it was with great difficulty that organ could be restored to its natural action. I was totally incapacitated for either mental or physical labor. I have been a sufferer from these complaints more than 25 years, and have used many medicines, but have never found a medicine from which I have found so much substantial benefit as I have from Dr. Greene's Nervura. If this should meet the eye of any one who is a sufferer from these, or any other nervous diseases, I earnestly recommend a trial of Dr. Greene's Nervura."

BELLAIRE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

Within one year Bellaire has lost more glass factories by fire than she lost by all the free-gas and cash bonus business put together, viz: The Bellaire Goblet factory, the Union window-glass factory and Hodefer Bros. These losses come so heavily upon insurance companies that they embrace every opportunity for claims and are quite slow in making settlements. The Union has not been able to effect a settlement in two months and has formally presented their claim to the various companies with a view of resorting to the courts. Should this same thing occur with Hodefer Bros. their 250 employees will be idle all of the approaching summer.

Much of the bed for a pike along the side of the hill west of the city will have to be made over again this spring, as great portions of the new-made roadway have sunk in places two feet and it is sure to slide more when the softer weather of spring comes. There seems in this, however, to be some luck in the leisure taken to put the stone on the road. None of it has been stoned, and since there is to be a road there it will be all the better by having to make the foundation over again. But the cost will not be lessened any by this operation.

The sale of the site of the Goblet works plant in this city, together with the glass furnaces and warehouse, to Jacob Heatherington, was consummated Saturday. This is remarkable cheap property and it is understood Mr. Heatherington is ready to give the most favorable inducements to persons desiring to operate a glass factory.

Wm. Bridenstein, who recently retired from the ice business here, is now in Georgia with James D. Arie, who succeeded his father as president of the Ohio Fruit Growing Co., and will probably invest in the same company.

HOW TO GET THEM.

If you want new customers,
ask for them.

There are hundreds of people living within a mile of your store that don't know there is such a place, and they'll continue to be ignorant on the subject unless you take steps to inform them. Some of us are too apt to think that "everybody knows us."

Now, that line of thought is a mighty bad one for business men. If they permit themselves to be deceived by it, they are pretty sure to "get left."

Seek publicity. Keep your name and your store's location constantly before the people.
Use the newspapers—there's nothing like it.
